

Methods Speaker Series

Common Errors

in Meta-Analyses and Meta-Regressions in Strength & Conditioning Research

Wednesday, October 23, 2024 16:00-17:00 PDT

In this webinar, Dr. Daniel Kadlec will review common statistical errors in meta-analyses and will document their frequency in highly cited meta-analyses from strength and conditioning research. Examples of errors (and solutions) in areas of particular interest in sport science will be presented and discussed.
